Do girls prefer boys who treat them badly?—Part II

In a recent column, Dave Bult, now 18, of Grand Rapids, Mich., asked: "Why do all the guys who lie and cheat on their girlfriends get more attention than those of us who still treat girls as ladies?" Dave said that girls complained he was "too nice," and he threatened to change his ways if that's what it took to find true love. Letters poured in. Here is a sample:

"A lot of girls today do go for guys who treat them like dirt. Unfortunately, I did as well. What it boils down to is that these guys act like they can't be bothered, and a lot of girls feel it's a challenge. Some like the guys to be in control (instead of having it 50-50). But in a relationship that constantly keeps you guessing, you can't possibly be happy."

will wonder where all the 'nice guys' are, and they will wish they had never dumped you."—Tracy Gilchrist, 31, Augusta, Ga.

"In general, a lot of girls do prefer boys who treat them badly. Then they spend all their time trying to change these guys!"

"Until I entered college, I too thought I probably
